

AskAnyDifference.com

We help you with differences and comparisons of terms, products, and services.

Difference Between Accept and Except

1. These two words are spelled differently.
2. They are pronounced similarly, but slightly differently.
3. While they have the same ending of -cept, the beginnings of the words are different.
4. “Accept” means to agree or take in, “except” means to leave out.
5. Consider this mental image: “Accept” is to welcome someone into your home, while “except” is to welcome everyone BUT that person.

Source and more details: <https://askanydifference.com/difference-between-accept-and-except/>