Difference Between Catholic and Lutheran

1. The main Catholic belief of faith formed by love and work along can save a person from sins is totally contradicted by the Lutherans. They believe in the concept of faith and Christ alone can save a person.
2. Lutheran believe traditions are to be followed as per scriptures, but the Catholics follow the Church orders also.
3. Catholics view Mother Mary as the Queen of Heaven. Infact, praying God through her is a tradition followed by them too, whereas Lutherans emphasize on direct access to God and give less prominence to Mother Mary.
4. Catholics have a true authority in Pope whereas the Lutheran churches function independently without any clear ONE authority for all the churches.
5. Catholic Bible has 73 books whereas Lutheran Bible has 66.
