

AskAnyDifference.com

We help you with differences and comparisons of terms, products, and services.

Difference Between Short Term and Long Term Goals

1. Short term goals usually have a timeline of up to 1 year and long term goals have a timeline of 3 years Plus.
2. For any individual, there would be Multiple short term goals and fewer long term goals.
3. The health-related and relationship-related goals are usually short term goes whereas luxury and finance-related goals and long term goals.
4. Short term goals required less patience than long term goals.
5. Short term goals give the confidence of completion faster than long term goals.
6. An individual is bound to fail in the completion of long term goals as compared to short term goals.

Source and more details: <https://askanydifference.com/difference-between-short-term-and-long-term-goals/>

AskAnyDifference.com

We help you with differences and comparisons of terms, products, and services.